As Mr. Harris is always a very interesting writer when treating of political subjects we have taken the pains to re-produce for the benefit of the public some of his forcible editorials regarding the Dolly Vardens and Democrats of this city. We do this as we realize that he paints this class of people much better than our own inexperienced and feeble pencil can ever hope to. In the issue of July 1st, 1879, Mr. Harris says editorially:

Infinitely better would it have been during these years for the Re. publican party to have suffered defeat, than to have been subjected to the responsibily of such success es as have been the fruits of ill advised concessions to the "rule or ruin" demands of a set of howters, who never squarely or honestly supported a Republican ticket in their

The Republican party is ever ready to try conclusions with whatever strength the Democratic Dolly Vardea corporation agglomeration can muster, and leave it with the day. people to pass in their verdict at the polls.

[Then, as now, Mr. Harris charged everyone who opposed him with affiliating with the corporations.- Ep.]

In the issue of June 28, 1879, Mr. Harris waxes funty at the expense of Mr. McGlashan of the Truckee Republican, and because he attempted to run a Dolly Varden party in Truckee, accuses him of having a slight touch of Renoses as a political disease, and continuing in his delicate jocose yein, says: Hope he'll make it though; it will perhaps weaken his constitution. He must have a regular prescription as soon as possible. We have a regular factory here in Carson, run on the Hom copathic principle, which cures such cases.

In the issue of Tuesday, June 17. 1879, he reads the riot act to the Doily Vardens, and says:

It is an excellent beginning for the future that the dishonest, querulous demacogism that has so long grown like a cancer upon the vitals of the party, has at last ripened into festerings and sloughed itself off-The Democratic party is fully welcome to the inoculation it has received from its embraces.

The stuff that makes Republicans is not of the whining kind that seeks doles of nourishment at the hands of the Democracy.

In the issue of Friday June 13th. he says that the need of the hour is the complete stamping out of the Democracy as an organization, and continues: It would have been done long ago had the Republican party have had either the support or the honestly avowed enmity of the two-faced marplots who have vociferously proclaimed their Republicanism while voting the Democratic ticket. The Democratic party is not entitled to recognition in a civilized land as a legitimate political organization. Probably this is the reason Mr. Harris, auti Chinese nominee for District Attorney, declined to en dorse the platform on Saturday last,

In the issue of Friday July 11th 1879, Mr. Harris calls attention to
